A st. Louis Bartender Makes Reckies Sr. Louis, March St.-The locality known as "Eagle's Nest" alley, between Seventh and Eighth streets, Spruce street and Clark avenue, was, at 4 o'clock vesterd v afternoon, the scene of a very bloody tragedy. Scot a white roustabout, and his Scott Jones mistress. Cora Thompson, only 18 years of 208 South Eighth street. The murderer, Louis Kemnade, a white man, who is a bartender in a saloon at 610 Spruce street, occupies a cell in the Fourcourts. The bullet that killed that woman passed through her heart, while the one that laid Jones low entered his right lung, severing several blood vessels. Kemuade, after the shooting, would have been killed by an infuriated mob of negroes and whites had not Officer Rice, of the Fifth district, fortunately been close at hand and saved his life at great peril to his own.

Pirrsnungi, Pa., March 21.—Henry Pemering, an employe at the Pennsyl-vania tabe works, met with a horrible neeldent vesterday. He was engaged conducting a bar of redhot iron through the rolls, when it slipped from the tongs. Before the man was aware he was struck in the stemach with the bar, receiving a terrible injury. Mad with rage, he seized the bar with his hands, burning his fingers to a crisp. But he struggled in vain to release himself from the torture, and only by the aid of his fellow-workman was the man removed from the bar, which had penetrated his stomach and was roast-ing him. He died in a short time.

An Entire Class Suspended. entire senior class in the medical de-partment of the State university has been suspended. Some time ago the class objected to the quality of sub-jects presented for dissection, but experts pronounced them all right. The students said Dean Millard, who holds the chair of medical jurisprodence, had exceeded his authority, and they com-plained of the matter to President Northrup instead of to the executive mamittee. The committee asked the students to apologize, which they re-fused to do, and were suspended.

CHICAGO, March 21.-The joint legis-ative committee investigating the busi-ness of the Distillers and Cattle-Feeders' Co. met here yesterday. John & Stevens, the whisky trust attorney, made a long speech and gave the committee to understand that, while willing to submit to a full investigation of its charter and such of its methods of doing business as were in commerci usage, the company would not permit an insight into its internal affairs or an examination of its books. The committee then adjourned until Friday.
